STARRING AWARD WINNING ENTERTAINERS AND RECORDING ARTISTS

Kenny Boulden

KENNY BOULDEN is a proud United States military veteran with more than sixty years of experience in the entertainment industry. In 1967, his folk-rock group performed on the college circuit opening shows for Kenny Rogers and the First Edition. After a detour into Doo-Wop, "Kenny B" sang with J.T. Carter's Crests ("Sixteen Candles") and The Del-Vikings ("Come Go With Me"). Then, he was sidelined with stage-four throat cancer. The surgery, radiation, and chemo that followed saved his life, but left his voice with a gritty, earthy, soulful tone like Kenny Rogers. "Kenny B" now remains in remission and is recognized as one of the most entertaining Kenny Rogers Tribute Artists in the business. Keeping Kenny Rogers' memory and music alive, "Kenny B" was inducted into Legends Country Music Tribute Artists Hall of Fame for his portrayal of the man we affectionately call "The Gambler".

Lennon Heitz

LENNON HEITZ is an accomplished performer with a long list of impressive stage credits. At just 25-years-old, she has appeared in professional theater productions including Addams Family; Heathers; Chicago; Cabaret and more. Lennon's own production company produces an award-winning show paying tribute to the incomparable Taylor Swift. When Lennon learned that a touring tribute show was looking for a new "Dolly", she was encouraged by her mother to audition. The production team called her "the perfect choice". They agreed that Lennon's powerhouse vocals and comfortable stage presence would bring a refreshing new vibrance and energy to the act. It's no secret, Lennon soon became the star of the show and audiences love her. So, on behalf of "Dolly" fans everywhere, here's a great big "Thank you" to Lennon's mom for having confidence and faith in her "Backwoods Barbie".
